

SERIOUS ACCIDENTS.

Two Occur on an Electric Railway

AT EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

Collision of Motor Cars in Which One Man is Fatally Crushed and Four Others Seriously Injured—A Runaway Car Shortly Afterwards Injures a Number of Others.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Oct. 17.—Two cars on the electric street railway collided with terrific force on a curve near the power house, Saturday evening about 5 o'clock. Two cars were on one block going east, and one car was waiting at the power house. After one car passed east, the westbound car pulled out, not knowing a second car was coming. Both cars were going at full speed. Four persons were seriously injured.

The injured are:
Frank Fowler, motorman, fatally hurt internally, and crushed.

Captain Abner Martin, an old Mississippi river steamboat pilot, blown up once with "Mark Twain," below Memphis, where he lost an eye, was thrown over the river bank from the car and seriously hurt.

W. Johnson, badly cut about head and body.

A little babe, name unknown, thrown from its mother's arms and badly bruised and trampled.

Superintendent Willis, of the street car line, was on Fowler's car, and was cut and bruised on the leg, but not seriously. He says both motormen did all they could to stop their cars, and that Fowler is a hero, staying with his car and refusing to jump. Both cars were found with brakes tight set after the collision. Fowler was taken to his home in the east end in the patrol wagon.

About 7 o'clock the same evening a car became unmanageable on the heavy Washington grade, ran down to Second and around the curve at a frightful speed. Three ladies were hurt by jumping from the car. Had they staid on they would have escaped uninjured.

Miss Minnie Schwartz, of the East End, was so seriously hurt that she has been unconscious ever since, and lies in a neighboring house, to which she was taken. Her injuries are in the head and spine.

Mrs. Barney Williams, of the East End, also jumped or was thrown from the car and had a bruised shoulder and badly cut arm.

Miss Ella Young, of the East End, is hurt about the back and hips.

The latter accident was caused by a "plug" blowing out while the car was going up the steep hill, and the brake refusing to stop the car.

The company has furnished medical attendance and are doing all in their power to promote the comfort of the injured.

MIDNIGHT MURDER.

A Ward Constable and Ex-Deputy Sheriff Shoots Down an Innocent Man.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 17.—Martin, alias "Reddy" Ziegler, a ward constable and ex-deputy sheriff of Schuylkill county, shot William Kopley, aged thirty-six, at midnight, Saturday night, killing him almost instantly. Kopley and his wife and brother-in-law were on their way home and when in the neighborhood of Ziegler's house met a party of intoxicated young men who insulted them, whereupon a quarrel ensued. Ziegler, hearing the disturbance, ran out with his revolver, threatening to shoot some one if they did not move on.

Kopley, it is said, made some remarks, when Ziegler caught and shot him, the ball entering the mouth and coming out at the base of the brain, causing death in a few minutes. Ziegler gave himself up to the police and had a preliminary hearing yesterday morning. He was committed to jail, but has applied for a writ of habeas corpus hearing which will take place today. Ziegler is known hereabouts for his hasty temper and brutality, having a most unsavory record as an officer of the law.

COLD BLOODED ASSASSINATION.

Two Men Taken from Officers and Their Bodies Riddled With Bullets.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 17.—News has just reached here of the cold blooded assassination of two men in the Big Horn country. J. S. Bedford and several other men had been arrested, charged with horse stealing and acquitted. Some shooting took place in the court room, at the close of the trial and Bedford and a man named Burch were fined for contempt of court.

They were ordered confined in jail at Buffalo and after being disarmed and tied to horses, started to that place in custody of officers. Five miles out of Bonanza, a party of men from ambush covered the officers with their Winchester and ordered them to ride ahead. They did so and the following morning returned to find Bedford and Burch riddled with bullets and their horses dead beside them. There is no clew to the identity of the men who committed the murders and little inquiry is likely to be made.

TRIED FOR HERESY.

Two Charges Against a Well Known Cincinnati Minister.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—The trial of Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, the eminent professor of Greek and Hebrew in Lane Theological seminary accused of teaching heretical doctrines, begins today. He is also charged with failure to carry out the obligation imposed upon him when he was ordained as a minister of the Presbyterian church.

The case of Dr. Smith is very similar to that of Dr. Briggs, and differs from it in only one or two essential particulars.

Professor Smith will conduct his own case. He said to a reporter that he would resist the effort to convict him of heresy, although he intimated that the chances were against him. "The matter," said he, "will turn on the construction of what is meant by the word of God."

CINCINNATI CELEBRATES.

A Week's Exercises Begun by a Grand Concert in Music Hall.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—The celebration of the discovery of America began last night with exercises in Music Hall under Catholic auspices. The great hall was elaborately decorated with the national colors in all possible variations of design, through all of which is conspicuous the stars and stripes. The celebration took the form of a grand concert by the combined Catholic church choirs and choruses from the parish schools. An address was delivered by Rev. Father Mackey. Fully 10,000 people were present.

On Tuesday the public schools will be dismissed for the week, and the next day will occur the parade of the children from the grades above the second reader and those of the high schools. On Thursday will occur the parade of the Catholic schools and on Friday will be the great popular civic demonstration on the part of citizens of larger growth. There will be a river pageant that will present in the most realistic manner possible the ancient modeled vessels in which Columbus crossed the Atlantic on his historic voyage. The whole day will be spent in carrying out the program, which will be on a grand scale.

TERRIBLE CASUALTY.

Five Men Killed by a Wall Giving Way and Falling Upon Them.

SENECA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 17.—While a gang of workmen were engaged in repairing a wall in the sluiceway of Gleason & Bailey's mill at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, the wall, which was thirty feet high, toppled over and buried seven men in the ruins.

Contractor George Seigfried, aged fifty-seven; Michael Mansell, aged fifty-five, and Michael Conroy, aged fifty-two, were instantly killed, their bodies being crushed out of all human semblance. Patrick Martin and Patrick Conroy were so fearfully injured that they died while being taken to the hospital. John Burns and Owen Crannie were injured slightly. All five of the men who were killed leave large families. The accident was caused by the undermining of the wall by the water in the raceway.

MURDEROUS TRAIN ROBBER.

He Shoots a Big Four Mail Agent at Clark's Mills, Ind., and Escapes.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 17.—As the Big Four passenger and mail train, due here at 7:40 o'clock Saturday evening from Indianapolis, was pulling out of Clark's Hill, fifteen miles from here, an attempt was made to rob the mail car.

Mail Agent John Hauley was in the car alone, and attempted to prevent the man from entering, but the robber shot him through the left arm, inflicting an ugly wound. The baggage master, hearing the shot, pulled the bell and stopped the train, when the fellow jumped off and made his escape. A posse of men started out in pursuit of the robber but have not yet been successful in capturing him.

Diphtheria Appears to Be Spreading.
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17.—Three more diphtheria reports have been received by Secretary Probet, of the state board of health. F. E. Kitzmiller writes from Piqua that three cases exist in that place, and another in the country three miles distant. C. J. Cole, of Cocopa, asks for instructions in handling the contagion, reporting one case in his village. C. W. Burroughs announces that diphtheria is quite prevalent in Bantam, and asks for instructions, saying that the officials are making no effort to keep it in check.

National Meeting of Dunkards.
MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 17.—The next national meeting of the Dunkard church will be held at Muncie. At the last meeting Indiana was selected as the state, and a committee was chosen to select the place. As about fifty thousand Dunkards representing this country and Europe will be present; several cities and towns bid for the crowd. The fair grounds will be finely arranged and lighted with electricity for the visitors. The meeting will be held in June.

Steamship Stranded.
LONDON, Oct. 17.—The steamship James, from Christiania for Sunderland, was stranded on the Harbor Sands early Sunday morning. Heavy seas broke over her deck houses. In response to her guns life-savers launched a lifeboat and, after a hard struggle, took off the seventeen men of her crew. The James was loaded with timber. Last accounts stated that she was going to pieces.

Accidentally Shot by a Girl.
PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 17.—James LeFevre was standing in front of Gabler's store, when Kate Moore, a girl of fifteen, came in. A Florent rifle was lying on the counter, and the girl picked it up, pointed it at LeFevre with the remark: "Your money or your life." The gun was accidentally discharged, the ball lodging in the corner of LeFevre's left eye, and will probably cause death.

A Brakeman Missing.
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17.—Robert Righter, a Hocking Valley brakeman, is missing from his home in this city, and it is feared that some serious accident may have happened him. Righter left home Wednesday to draw his pay from the pay car. He was seen drinking that night, but has been missing since. His habits have always been good heretofore. He is married and has one child.

PARADERS RUN DOWN

One Man Killed and Four Others Injured.

TWO OF THE LATTER WILL DIE

The Accident Occurred in Pittsburg and Was Caused by the Inability of a Motor Man to Stop His Car on a Steep Grade.

List of the Victims.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 17.—During a Republican parade Saturday evening a Wylie avenue cable car ran into the Eleventh Ward Marching club, killing one man and injuring four others, two of whom will die.

Their names are:
Henry Apel, aged sixteen years, standard-bearer of the National Military band, instantly killed.

Ward Ruffner, aged eighteen years, musician, both thighs crushed and injured internally; dying at midnight.

Henry Schnitzer, aged fifty-six years, musician, legs crushed and injured internally; will die.

John Bailey, aged twenty-two years, member of Eleventh Ward Republican club, badly cut about the head, and it is feared hurt internally; dangerous.

John Guenther, aged twenty-one years, musician, seriously hurt about the legs and back; will recover.

The accident was caused by the inability of Charles Gledhill, motorman on car No. 64, to stop the car on the heavy grade.

The club was marching down Wylie avenue, to take part in the general parade, and had reached Townsend street, when struck by the car. Motorman Gledhill rang the gong and applied the brakes, but it was useless, and before the men could get out of the way the car ran them down. Young Apel was caught under the wheels and crushed to death. The others were pushed and dragged several yards before the brakes were controlled and the car stopped.

An indignant mob quickly surrounded the car and threatened to lynch Gledhill, but he jumped through the car window. He was arrested an hour later at his home by Officer William Elmore, and is now locked up in the Eleventh ward station house to await the coroner's investigation.

VICTIM OF SWINDLERS.

Consul General of Ecuador Arrested. Charged with Forgery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Domingo L. Ruiz, the white-haired consul general of Ecuador, who was arrested on Saturday on a charge of forging the signature of Gustavo Preston, a South American merchant, to two notes for $1,000 each, was arraigned in court yesterday and held in $3,000 bonds.

During the brief proceedings before Justice Ryan the fact leaked out that Senor Ruiz, who is in his dotage, has been for some time in the hands of a band of conspirators who have fleeced him out of $30,000. In their greed for more money these rascals induced him to endorse the two $1,000 notes. The principal in the conspiracy is Mrs. Bertha Laws, his adopted daughter, who lives in great style at 226 West End avenue. Consul General Ruiz's friends say he was hypnotized by the woman, and has done her bidding for the past few years.

It is also asserted that Mrs. Laws is a shrewd sharper, who has lived in luxury at his expense. This woman first became acquainted with Senor Ruiz through an advertisement, at the same time his wife was in this country, while his daughter was travelling in Europe. He advertised for a housekeeper, and Mrs. Laws, who was then plain Bertha Krudstadt, of Stockholm, Sweden, answered the notice and was soon installed housekeeper. She quickly ingratiated herself, and in a few weeks made him believe she was his daughter by a woman other than his wife. She has been arrested.

SHOPS BURNED.

Serious Fire Losses at Jersey City, New Jersey.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 17.—At 1 o'clock Sunday morning fire broke out in Theodore Smith and Brothers' boiler and machine shop at Hudson and Essex streets. The flames spread to Wallis' iron works adjoining and thence to David Birdsell's boiler shop, Brown & Miller's machine shop and William L. Heyniger's ship carpenters' shop.

Nearly the entire fire department was called out, and eight Pennsylvania tugs rendered effective service on the river front. Smith and Birdsell's shops were completely destroyed. The others were badly damaged. The loss is estimated at $125,000, and is covered by insurance. The individual losses could not be ascertained.

Homestead Relief Day in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—At yesterday's meeting of the trades and labor assembly the committees appointed by the various unions to solicit aid for the locked out men at Homestead submitted its report. After denouncing the Homestead management for its attitude toward labor and expressing sympathy with the locked out men, the committee recommended that Oct. 29, 1892, be known as "Homestead relief day," and that all working people donate one day's pay, or according to their means, toward the relief fund. The report was adopted and a committee appointed to receive contributions.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

A Representative of the London Illustrated News Arrested in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Charles A. White, representative of the London Illustrated News, was arrested in this city on Saturday, charged with the embezzlement of $50,000. The charge is preferred by his wife, formerly Mrs. Nagle, who resides in Cheyenne, Wyo. White was taken to the Jefferson Market court and remanded; he will be extradited.

White, in the first instance, was also charged with his wife with having kidnapped his sixteen-year-old son, George H. Nagle, with ulterior designs upon his fortune. Telegraphic dispatches were sent Superintendent Byrnes by her attorneys that the lad was being secreted at the St. James hotel in this city, and upon their subsequent corroboration by the Cheyenne chief of police two detectives were detailed on the case.

When they called at the St. James for the lad, however, they learned that White had left for Rock Island, Ill., and that the boy had been sent to his mother. This was about a month ago, and nothing was heard in the matter until Saturday, when the sheriff of Cheyenne arrived with requisition papers and a warrant under which White was arrested on the embezzlement charge.

White, it appears met Mrs. Nagle, a wealthy widow, about a year ago, while both were visiting Hot Springs. The acquaintance soon culminated in marriage and White, as Mrs. Nagle alleged, obtained from her shortly afterward, by threat and duress, $15,000 in cash and a promissory note for $75,000. In addition he embezzled from her $40,000 worth of stocks and bonds and immediately upon disposing of these, fled.

White, on the other hand, alleges that his matrimonial consent was purchased for $100,000, of which but $15,000 was paid in cash; the balance was to be paid as soon as the widow could convert her securities. It was for the purpose of securing this balance, White says, that Mrs. Nagle gave him her note for $75,000 and ample collateral security.

CENSUS BULLETIN.

One Issued on the Combined Textile Industries of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The census bureau has issued a bulletin on the combined textile industries of the United States for the census year 1890 which will attract general attention. The increase of silk manufactures since 1880 was most striking, being 112.75 per cent. in the value of the products. The increase in cotton manufactures ranked second, being 89.51 per cent., and the wool manufactures third, being 36.39 per cent.

The increase in the entire textile industry was 88.51 per cent. The relative rank in importance of these industries has been changed. The wool manufacture in all its branches, including all descriptions of hosiery and knit goods, now stands first, with gross products valued at $387,768,524. Cotton is second, with products valued at $267,981,724, and silk manufacture third, with products valued at $87,298,453.

The actual increase in the value of products was $70,515,611 in wool, $75,891,614 in cotton and $46,265,409 in silk, the total increase being without a parallel in any country. There were 248 establishments engaged in dyeing and finishing textiles separate and apart from establishments which dye and finish their own products. The capital invested in these was $40,270,578, employing 20,067 hands and paying $9,917,011 in wages.

The value added to the product of the textile factories by these establishments amounted to $28,900,560, a decrease of $3,398,860 as compared with 1880. The decrease was on account of a great reduction in the cost of dyeing and finishing through improved methods estimated to be equal to 25 per cent.

ENCARNACION GARZA ARRESTED.

A Brother of the Mexican Revolutionist Now in Custody.

LEWISTON, Tex., Oct. 17.—Encarnacion Garza, the younger brother of the Mexican revolutionist, Catarino Garza, arrived here by steamer yesterday from Key West in custody of Captain Joseph Shely, the noted ranger, by whom he was arrested on Wednesday last. He was taken to San Antonio last night, where he will be tried for violation of the neutrality law.

Captain Shely has been on the trail of Garza since his brother, Sheriff Shely, of Starr county, was shot by a band of revolutionists some weeks ago. He reached Key West Oct. 10, and found a grand celebration of the anniversary of the declaration of Cuban independence in full blast, and Encarnacion Garza in gay uniform and nodding plumes, marching at the head of a procession of over 1,500 Cuban sympathizers.

Remaining quiet until the festivities were over, Captain Shely effected Garza's arrest next morning and Wednesday left by steamer with him for this place. Garza had been in Key West since March 10 last. He had not concealed his identity, but was, on the contrary, actively at work organizing a band to invade Cuba. He lived in the house of Pedro Lopez, one of the largest and wealthiest cigar manufacturers.

Garza's chief concern upon being arrested was that he might be turned over to the Mexican authorities, which would mean speedy death, but upon being assured that he would be accorded a fair trial in an American court he accompanied Captain Shely without further objection. He states his brother, Catarino, is not now on American soil.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Oct. 17.—Arno Zeigler, the notorious character who tried to murder his wife about a month ago, by shooting her twice, came into court Saturday and on a plea of guilty Judge Hackney gave him twelve years in the southern prison. The sentence is just and rids the city of a bad character.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

Death and Destruction Scattered About.

A ROLLING MILL DISASTER

Two Men Fatally Injured and a Number of Others Seriously Hurt at Portsmouth Ohio—Nearly Three Hundred Men in the Mill When the Accident Occurred.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 17.—The Burgess Steel and Iron company, of this city, was the scene of a terrible boiler explosion Saturday. One of the big flue boilers of the main battery of four which furnishes steam for the bar mill and one of the plate mills, let go with terrific force, scattering death and destruction about. The explosion took place in the busiest part of the mill, where nearly 300 men work, and that there were not many more killed and injured is the great wonder.

The injured are:

Isaac Farmer, Lucasville, serious injuries about the head.

Mr. Levi York, manager of the works, says that they carry $40,000 worth of the Boiler insurance company, of Hartford, and that the agent had just inspected them. He says there was plenty of water, and but eighty-five pounds of steam on when the explosion occurred. The insurance is so fixed that the injured men will get a part of the benefit.

Murder at a Ball.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—At Uhrig Cave at midnight, William J. McKenzie, a twenty-two-year-old man attending a select ball, was fatally shot by Professor Maurice Adams, a prominent dancing master of the city. About seventy-five couples were on the floor at the time, and a panic issued, men screaming and women fainting. When quiet was finally restored it was learned that Adams had made some remark about a young lady, a friend of McKenzie's, which the latter considered insulting. He struck at Adams who then shot him. Adams is under arrest.

Death from Smoking Cigarettes.

WINCHESTER, O., Oct. 17.—A post-mortem was held on the remains of R. M. Bell, the young attorney from Washington, who died very suddenly at the Vernon House, in Peebles, this county. The examination revealed the fact that Bell was a cigarette fiend, and had died from the effects of the poison extracted from the smoke. He is reported to have smoked nearly a dozen boxes of cigarettes on the day previous to his death. His remains were shipped to Washington last evening.

Mrs. Harrison May Live Three Months.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Harrison's rally Saturday was of brief duration, and yesterday it was followed by weakness so prevalent in tubercular diseases. Dr. Gardiner, in answer to questions, said that, while Mrs. Harrison's condition may fluctuate from day to day, unless some unforeseen complication arises she may live three months.

Buzzards Suffering with the Rabies.

CHARLESTON, O., Oct. 17.—The citizens in the Copeland neighborhood, where they have been compelled to kill horses and hogs on account of being bitten by mad dogs, are very much surprised and alarmed at the strange actions of the buzzards that have eaten the meat of the dead hogs. They are congregated in great numbers, and are said by responsible people there to be raving mad.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

THERE is nothing populist in the Republican canvass. It is a campaign of the office-holder, for the office-holder and by the office-holder, pertinently remarks the New York World.

REPUBLICANS have made a great blow about wanting a joint debate between Mr. McCartney and Mr. Paynter, and yet without conferring with their opponents they went ahead, fixed their dates and made all other arrangements, and then said, "Come on, Mr. Paynter, we'll divide time with you." A fellow who is "spilin'" for a fight, don't usually adopt such tactics.

THE Ripley Bee came to hand last week with a Republican campaign sheet entitled "Protection and Reciprocity" folded in it. There was nothing whatever on the sheet to show that it was a supplement of the Bee, and, if we mistake not, sending it out this way was a plain violation of the postal laws. Republican editors must be getting hard up when they evade the law and defraud "Uncle Sam" in their sneaking efforts to spread their campaign twaddle.

GENERAL DAN SICKLES DEFENDS CLEVELAND.

The frantic efforts of Republican papers and Republican speakers to array the old soldiers against Cleveland show how desperate and despicable they have become. They are parading the fact that he vetoed many private pension bills during his administration, but they take pains to suppress and conceal another fact, namely, the fact that he approved more private pension bills than most all his predecessors combined. Speaking of the vetoes referred to, General Dan Sickles in a speech at Utica, N. Y., said: "Now as to President Cleveland's record in behalf of the soldiers. They charge that he has vetoed a good many pension bills. So he has. I have read his vetoes. I am a soldier. I love my soldiers. Had I been President and a Congress had passed such bills for my soldiers, I should have vetoed every one of them, too. They were mostly all frauds and shams, and I had no frauds under me. Any right-minded man, sworn to discharge his duty, would have signed these vetoes as President Cleveland did."

A Nuisance to Farmers.

The back part of Mr. Omar Dodson's farm south east of the city last Thursday was set on fire supposedly by trespassing parties, who have long been a nuisance to the surrounding farmers. The fire damaged the farm to some extent and frightened the neighbors considerably. The heroic and faithful work of Mr. Robert Adair and his son and Mr. Dick Williams and sons, towards subduing and confining the flames, no doubt prevented a conflagration that would have been very destructive as the woods and pastures at that time were almost as inflammable as powder.

It would be quite an accommodation to the neighboring farmers if the city would confine this indolent class of people within its limits, and appropriate a sustenance for them, enabling them to subsist without pillaging the farms from the time the first buds put forth, or I should say the year round, pilfering what the laboring farmer has gained by the sweat of his brow.
R. C. WILLIAMS.

FARMERS TURNING TO CLEVELAND.

Twenty-Six Desert the Republican Party in One Neighborhood in New York.

BUFFALO, October 14.—Twenty-six farmers around Silver Creek, who have always voted the straight Republican ticket, are coming out for Cleveland, to vote and work for him. The sentiment is growing, and a fair Democratic majority is looked for this fall in that hitherto Republican region.

These twenty-six farmers did not straggle over to tariff reform, but in a meeting at Forestville, held Wednesday night, renounced the Republican party in a body.

In Hamlet, a little village a few miles from Forestville, there are a number of Republican farmers who have expressed their determination to vote for Cleveland. The Democratic leaders have been working night and day since the canvass, and the Republican majority in Chautauqua will be cut from 6,000 to 4,000 without a doubt. In Silver Creek the majority will be cut down 80 per cent. The defection is spreading in all the farming districts throughout Western New York.

Mirth and Music.

LOTTIE WILLIAMS.

"Ole Olson," the successful Swedish dialect play which comes to the opera house next Thursday night, October 20, is full of music and mirth. Ben Hendricks is one of the most laugh-provoking comedians on the stage, and his Ole, while quaint and droll, is at the same time hilariously funny. Miss St. George Hussey, the well known character actress, has a yell-compelling Irish part and will sing and dance an Irish jig. Miss Belle Francis, the heroine of the play, is a notably handsome woman and a most intelligent actress. Bewitching little Lottie Williams is the soubrette of the play, and she will do a song and dance and sing "Mary and John." Mr. Stine is a remarkable baritone, and will be heard in several solos. Ole's sisters will also be a feature of the entertainment, and out theatre-goers may look forward to a delightful evening when "Ole Olson" comes. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

Sadie Scanlan.

She has a strong musical voice which renders Irish songs in a most effective manner, and an Irish brogue that is perfectly natural.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

Miss Scanlan has an attractive face and voice which she uses with splendid effect.—Philadelphia Telegram.

In all that she did she infused the right sort of spirit.—Philadelphia Ledger.

There is a certain air about her acting that is thoroughly pleasing.—Philadelphia Evening Herald.

Railroad News.

The annual meeting of the Pullman Car Company was held last week in Chicago. The earnings for the year were $10,000,356. A dividend of $2 on each share of stock was ordered. The company is now building 415 new cars to cost $5,500,000.

Mr. W. J. McKee, formerly Division Superintendent of the C. and O., has been appointed Superintendent of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley Railroad.

Bronston Coming.

The many friends and admirers of Hon. Charles J. Bronston, of Lexington, will be glad to learn that they are to have an opportunity of hearing him the present campaign. He will speak here Wednesday, November 2nd, and at Flemingsburg the next day. Mr. Bronston ranks among the ablest and most eloquent of Kentucky's orators. Let all hear him.

CAPTAIN WM. KIRKER, formerly commander of the steamer Telegraph, was stricken with paralysis last week. This is the second attack, and his condition is serious.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM H. COX's oldest daughter, Miss Lizzie Newman, whose illness was noticed Saturday, was no better this morning. Her condition is reported as very critical.

DAN O'BRIEN was fined $8.50 by Mayor Pearce this morning for a breach of the peace. O'Brien got into a quarrel with Edward Little on Market street Saturday night, and slashed him across the cheek with a knife, inflicting a flesh wound. The parties live on Cabin Creek.

ALLEN O. MYERS, one of the ablest Democratic writers and speakers in Ohio, will speak at Aberdeen on the night of November 1. Enquirer readers will remember him as "Pickaway." West Virginia Democrats were so pleased with him last year that they are now paying him $25 a day and expenses for canvassing that State.

CHICAGO had better take in her horns when it comes to such a pass as that some of her citizens send away for a choice barrel of flour, as was the case with the wife of Captain W. L. Marshall, who sent to Taylor Bros., of Washington, for a barrel of Slicer's celebrated "Diamond" brand. She saw it when on a visit to Colonel C. A. Marshall recently, and pronounced it the finest she had ever tried, saying she had never seen such bread as it made. Of course this is nothing to the detriment of the Messrs. Taylor nor Captain Slicer.

The River Gauge.

Mr. P. T. Jenkins, in charge of the Weather Bureau at Cincinnati, returned to that city Saturday afternoon, having completed all arrangements for the construction of a river gauge at this place. The contracts for the work was let to Mr. Jacob Wormald and Mr. W. C. Pelham, the latter of whom will locate the marks. The authorities at Washington City were perfectly satisfied with the proposition, and telegraphed Mr. Jenkins authority to proceed. The work will be completed as soon as possible.

Wharfmaster Phister will be the local observer, and will report to the Bureau at Cincinnati, daily. Heretofore, there was no report as to the condition of the river between Portsmouth and Cincinnati. The location of a gauge here will be an accommodation and a benefit that the river men and coal men will appreciate highly.

In addition to the river gauge, a rain gauge will be constructed at the wharfbat.

Mr. Jenkins has made arrangements to have a weather chart displayed at post-office daily for the information of the public. He is indefatigable in his efforts to extend the workings of the Weather Bureau and make the system as far-reaching and as beneficial as possible.

SATURDAY'S RALLY.

Enthusiastic Democrats Addressed by
Gov. McCreary and Others:

Good News From Bracken—Messrs.
Paynter, Harbeson and Sallee
Receive an Ovation.

It was an enthusiastic crowd of Democrats that greeted ex-Governor McCreary, Congressman Paynter, Judge Harbeson and Commonwealth Attorney Sallee at Germantown fair grounds last Saturday.

The attendance was hardly up to expectations, but the crowd was composed of solid citizens from Mason, Bracken and Robertson counties. Dover, Augusta, Brooksville, Mt. Olivet and other places sent goodly delegations. The Brooksville crowd was headed by a drum corps, and the Dover Cornet Band was on hand.

The weather was threatening in the forenoon, while the afternoon was showery, and this fact no doubt kept many away.

Mr. Jos. A. Walton, of Germantown, presided and introduced the speakers. Commonwealth Attorney Sallee spoke in the forenoon, devoting his remarks to local and district questions.

Ex-Governor McCreary was the orator of the day. He spoke for nearly two hours, and no one ever had closer attention than was given this distinguished and honored son of Kentucky. His references to Democracy's standard-bearers were greeted with applause. This is a remarkable campaign in one sense, said the speaker. For the first time in the history of the country, the nominees of the two great political parties had had experience in the office of President. Democracy had recognized the voice of the people in selecting Cleveland; Harrison's nomination was largely brought about by an army of office-holders, and the plutocrats of the country.

Two years ago there was a political revolution in the country, and the Republicans were swept from power in the lower House of Congress. The issues in the present campaign are the same as the issues in the fight two years ago—the Force bill, the tariff question and an honest, economical administration of the Government. Democrats were fighting for a reduction of taxation and for free elections, and he believed they would win in November. He referred to Judge Gresham, Judge Cooley and Hon. Wayne McVeagh, a member of Garfield's Cabinet, the recent notable converts to Democracy, as evidence showing the drift of the political current. Mr. McCreary devoted most of his time to a discussion of the Force bill and the tariff.

Congressman Paynter followed in a telling speech, and was as enthusiastically received as Governor McCreary. The latter returned to his home at Richmond Saturday night and speaks at Danville today. He has a number of appointments to fill during the rest of the campaign. Although he lives in a rather close district, yet he is so popular that he rarely ever has opposition. One has only to be in his company a few hours to get at the secret of his popularity. He is a splendid conversationalist, and has a cordial greeting for every one.

Congressman Paynter, Judge Harbeson and Commonwealth Attorney Sallee made a canvass of Bracken County last week, closing at Chatham Friday night. They spoke at Johnsville, Foster, Berlin, Milford, Brooksville and Chatham, and their reception at each point was in the nature of an ovation. Bracken Democrats are well organized and campaign clubs met the nominees at nearly every point, with drum corps or band, and the speakers were escorted from place to place. They are loud in their praise of the Bracken Democrats. If there is any dissatisfaction in that county, the nominees failed to hear of it.

Mr. Paynter speaks at Mt. Olivet today, and goes from there to Harrison County.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says "Albert Butts, of Maysville," is accused of robbing William Barker, of Mt. Zion, Ky., of $75 while the two were out on a lark in the Queen City. The Commercial Gazette gives the name of the accused as Albert Britts. As far as known no person named Britts or Butts lives in Maysville.

Those who have read an account of the grand naval display in New York on Columbus Day can form some estimate of the celebration which is to be held in Cincinnati October 21. The three ships, identical in design of those composing the fleet of Christopher Columbus, will sail on their voyage of discovery under the escort of every vessel which can be concentrated at Cincinnati at that time. The Chesapeake and Ohio will run a special train to Cincinnati October 20th, for which very low excursion rates have been named.

Dan Scott's Exciting Adventure at Georgetown, O.—A Thief
Captured.

Mr. Dan Scott, who formerly resided near Fern Leaf, but who is now a citizen of Manchester, had an exciting adventure at Georgetown, O., the other night, that resulted in landing a thief behind the bars. Mr. Scott was in Georgetown attending the fair. The Manchester Signal says: "When he went to the hotel to go to bed one night, he was put in a room with three strangers, two of whom were citizens of Russellville, name Mefford and McKinley, and the third said his name was Brown, from near West Union, and that he was a son of Henry Brown. The last named man aroused Dan's suspicions and he went to bed in a disturbed state of mind. He couldn't sleep, as he was uneasy, so he made an excuse to get up and went to the lavatory and deposited his money and watch in the leg of his unmentionables. Then he went back to bed and to sleep (with one eye open). About two or three o'clock Dan awoke and discovered that Brown was up and going about the room. He played 'possum, and pretty soon was repaid by seeing Brown go through the pockets of Mefford and McKinley's clothes. Dan drew a short breath and turned over in bed, when Brown came to the side of the bed and sat down upon it. Dan was wide awake about this time and asked Brown if it wasn't time to get up. Brown remarked that he didn't know what time it was, so Dan got up and went to the window and looked out, and remarked that he guessed he had enough sleep and would stay up. Dan dressed and went down stairs, notified the landlord of what had transpired, who in turn sent for the Marshal of the village, and together they went to the room of Brown and placed him under arrest. They also 'woke Mefford and McKinley and told them to see if they had lost anything, and they, on examination discovered that they were out about $170 in clean cash. Brown was searched and the money was found in the toe of his shoe. Brown was taken before the Mayor of Georgetown and bound over to court. He will be indicted and will go to Columbus for about five years. Dan says he will never again go to bed with a stranger."

AN Ohio pomologist employs, when packing apples for market, a table eight feet long, with sideboards six inches high, that will hold two barrels of apples. He sorts the apples into at least two grades. In remarks made before a farmers' institute he said: "For the first grade set two tiers of smooth, good-colored, medium-sized apples, and fill up the barrel with apples that will run as good or better. Shake them well, level off the end, press the end in so tight that there is no chance for an apple to move, and after the head is nailed turn the barrel upside down and put your name on it as guarantee of a No. 1 apple."

MINISTER LINCOLN.

He Arrives in New York City on His Two Months' Vacation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Robert T. Lincoln, United States minister to England, arrived in this city yesterday morning, on the Etruria. The steamer arrived early Saturday at quarantine, but much to the disgust of a large number of passengers, was not allowed to proceed to her dock until yesterday morning. It was 7:30 o'clock when the dock was reached.

As soon as the steamer was made fast Minister Lincoln left his stateroom, No. 211, and joining Count Mettermich, the counsellor and first secretary of the German embassy at London, who had accompanied Minister Lincoln on his trip, proceeded down the gang-plank, entered a carriage and was driven to the Holland House, where he was assigned to rooms Nos. 101 and 102. He registered as Robert T. Lincoln, Chicago, Ills. The first part of the day Minister Lincoln devoted to resting after his voyage. During the afternoon he received quite a number of callers, notable among them being C. N. Bliss, General Brockfield, Hon. Patrick Egan, Chairman Carter, of the Republican national committee, and Senator Hale.

Mr. Lincoln is looking well and happy. He said to a reporter for the United Press that he was here to spend his regular annual two months leave of absence. He will remain here but a short time, when he will report at Washington, and then go to Chicago to be present at the opening of the world's fair. After that his plans have not yet been arranged.

MAD DOG IN PHILADELPHIA.

A Dozen People Bitten by a Little Yellow Cur.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—A sensation was created on Chestnut street at 7:30 o'clock last night by a mad dog which bit a dozen people. The canine, a diminutive yellow creature, started from Third and Chestnut streets and ran up in the middle of the latter thoroughfare for several squares, when it took to the pavement. People rushed hither and thither to give the rabid animal a clear course.

At Sixth street the dog attacked an unknown Russian girl twelve years of age, but her clothing is thought to have protected her from injury. At Seventh street, John Boyd could not get out of the way of the frothing canine and was severely bitten. At Eighth street William H. Boker, Dr. F. B. Hazel, L. Meyers and Charles H. Ebinger, were all attacked, and more or less severely bitten.

Reserve Officer A. H. Jones then gave chase and at Ninth street stunned the animal by a blow in the head with his club. He ended its career by smashing its skull with his black jack. Six or seven other persons, whose names can not be learned were also bitten, but so far as known none of the victims were taken to any hospital.

Shot His Friend.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—William A. Walsh, twenty-nine years old, of 80 North Oxford street, Brooklyn, got drunk last night and went into his friend Donovan's saloon. Donovan took him by the arm and led him into the hall, intending to take him home. In the hall Walsh drew a revolver and shot Donovan just above the heart. Donovan was removed to the hospital, where it was said he would die. Walsh, who is foreman of the blacksmith shop in the navy yard, was arrested.

Disease Resembling Cholera.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 17.—A special to The Morning Herald from Hiram, N. Y., says: An epidemic, which physicians say closely resembles Asiatic cholera, has broken out at Second Mill, a small settlement near this town. Five deaths and one convalescent are the result of the disease thus far, and several new cases have developed within the last day or two. One victim, an old lady, was found to be alive twenty-four hours after death was supposed to have taken place.

One Colored Man Kills Another.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 17.—John Hill, aged eighteen, colored, lay in wait for John Dotson, also colored, aged nineteen, at Sycamore and Ann streets early yesterday morning and shot him in the forehead. Dotson died a half hour afterward at the Cooper hospital. The affair was the culmination of several altercations at low dance halls last week. The murderer was arrested at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon while trying to escape from the city.

Teacher Convicted of Brutality.

BOSTON, Ind., Oct. 17.—School Teacher Theodore Longest has been found guilty of hanging ten-year-old Daniel Starr in school by the neck with a whip cord till he was black in the face and his tongue lolled out. The little fellow had been obstreperous, and was drawn up till he stood upon his toes and was left thus while a class recited, and was not noticed until the children in the school raised the alarm by their cries. Longest will be expelled.

An Old Veteran Gone.

ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 17.—Dr. John F. Kennedy, a prominent physician and member of the pension board, died suddenly Saturday. He was a gallant soldier in the Seventy-eighth Ohio, and distinguished himself at Atlanta by saving the colors. After the war he graduated from the Cincinnati medical college.

Arm Shot Off.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 17.—G. W. Rone, a farmer living near Grisson's landing, this county, had one arm shot entirely off by a double-barreled shotgun. He was riding in a cart, and a sudden start of his horse set the piece off.

Brakeman Killed.

Tommy Warren Kills a Man.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 17.—Tommy Warren, ex-featherweight champion, entered the St. Charles saloon where "Skeeter" Root, a young gambler, and two women were drinking yesterday afternoon, and opened fire with a revolver, apparently endeavoring to hit Root. In this he did not succeed, but one of his bullets passed through the body of Clement Stoval, an attache of the saloon, causing death. Warren disappeared after the shooting and has not yet been captured.

Not Among the Indicted Ones.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—It develops that Mr. J. A. Younghusband, of Detroit, heretofore reported as indicted for complicity in the Iron Hall swindles, was not among the number indicted. He seems rather to have been the victim of than a participator in the Iron Hall swindles.

Nowhere in the West can you find such a mammoth and matchless stock of these fashionable Winter Garments, made of selected Furs, and of a reliable quality. They are designed and patterned by Mr. Joseph Davallion, the celebrated French Designer, and made under his personal supervision in our own work-shops. All our tight-fitting Seal Garments, have The Davallion Elastic Patented Fly, invented, owned and controlled by us exclusively in the United States, Europe and Canada.
